PROVIDER PROFILES

Jeroo K. Bharucha, MD: Dr. Bharucha was born and raised in Bombay, India and earned her medical degree at the University of India at Bombay. She moved to the United States in 1975, and finished her training in Rochester, NY, completing her Internship and Residency in Obstetrics and Gynecology at the University of Rochester. Dr. Bharucha has been in private practice since her arrival in Rochester holding a position at the University of Rochester as Clinical Instructor.

Wendy M. Dwyer, MD: Dr. Dwyer is a graduate of Loyola University of Chicago, Stritch School of Medicine. During the course of her education, Dr. Dwyer has been involved in a number of volunteer activities involving health and social issues. These include work in Guatemala and St. Lucia, as well as tutoring, teen pregnancy support, volunteering in a homeless shelter, and organizing a community blood pressure clinic. Dr. Dwyer's professional interests include obstetrics, infertility, pediatric and adolescent gynecology, as well as advanced hysteroscopic and laparoscopic techniques.

Marc H. Eigg, MD: A graduate of the State University of New York, Upstate Medical University, Dr. Eigg began practice with the Genesee Health Service at Genesee Hospital, and has been in private practice since 2001. While at Genesee, Dr. Eigg was the director of the Adolescent Maternity Program. Dr. Eigg's areas of special clinical interest include obstetrics, advanced hysteroscopic and laparoscopic surgery, alternatives to hysterectomy, fertility, pelvic pain management, endometriosis, female incontinence evaluation and treatment, and advanced pelvic surgical reconstruction.

Donald J. Gabel, MD: Dr. Gabel earned his medical degree from the State University of New York at Buffalo, and subsequently completed his Internship and Residency at the University of Rochester's Strong Memorial Hospital. Dr. Gabel has spent his entire medical career in the practice of obstetrics and gynecology. He most enjoys the long-term, caring patient and family relationships afforded by this specialty.

Marc S. Greenstein, DO: A graduate of the New York College of Osteopathic Medicine at the New York Institute of Technology, Dr. Marc Greenstein recently relocated to the Rochester area after having been in private practice on Long Island since 1996. During that time, he has developed special interest and skills in the areas of minimally invasive surgical techniques, as well as evaluation and treatment of pelvic organ prolapse and urologic disorders.

Michelle M. Herron, MD: Dr. Michelle Herron was born and raised in Syracuse, New York, where she served several years as an Emergency Medical Technician for the city's largest volunteer ambulance corps. She is a graduate of the University of Rochester School of Medicine and Dentistry, Rochester, NY, and completed her Residency in Obstetrics and Gynecology at the University of Rochester as well.

Judy E. Kerpelman, MD: Dr. Kerpleman earned her medical degree at the University of Rochester School of Medicine and Dentistry, Rochester, NY, where she also completed her Internship and Residency programs in Obstetrics and Gynecology. After completion of her residency Dr. Kerpleman served as an Obstetrician-Gynecologist in the U.S. Air Force, stationed at Ellsworth Air Force Base, South Dakota. Following her military service, Dr. Kerpelman returned to Rochester to join West Ridge Obstetrics and Gynecology, where she currently enjoys caring for a wide variety of patients with special interests in advanced laparoscopic surgery and adolescent medicine.

Edward B. Ogden, MD: Dr. Ogden is a graduate of Northwestern University's Feinberg School of Medicine and completed his residency in OB/Gyn at the University of Rochester. He is especially motivated and committed to one-on-one contact with patients and shares in the clinical education of his patients. Dr. Ogden's special interests include hormone replacement therapy where he has acquired much experience with use of androgens as an addition to estrogen in hormone replacement therapy.

Colleen A. Raymond, MD: Dr. Raymond is a graduate of the State University of New York, Upstate Medical University and completed a Residency in OB/Gyn at the University of Pittsburgh, Magee-Women's Hospital. Prior to joining West Ridge OB/GYN, Dr. Raymond held several academic and clinical positions, and has participated in research and lectured on a wide range of obstetric and gynecologic issues, including complications in pregnancy, postpartum sexuality, pediatric and adolescent gynecology and chronic pelvic pain. Her areas of clinical interest include pediatric/adolescent medicine and OB/GYN resident education.

Derek J. tenHoop, MD: A native of Queens, NY, Dr. tenHoop earned his medical degree from the State University of New York at Stony Brook School of Medicine. He has been in private practice in Rochester, NY since completing his residency in OB/Gyn at the University of Rochester. His specific interests include operative hysteroscopy, advanced laparoscopic surgery, and ultrasound.

Angela Ehlinger, RNC, WHNP: Angela Ehlinger graduated from the Medical College of Virginia at Virginia Commonwealth University as an Ob/Gyn Nurse Practitioner. Prior to her practice as a Nurse Practitioner, she worked as a Registered Nurse in Labor and Delivery in Florida and Virginia. She is a certified specialist in injectable contraceptive counseling.

Sandra Moore, MSN, WHNP: Sandra Moore graduated from the University of Rochester with both a Bachelor of Science and Master of Science in Nursing, specializing in Women's Health. Prior to her practice as a Nurse Practitioner, she worked both as a Licensed Practical Nurse and a Registered Nurse in clinical research at Strong Memorial Hospital.

Beverly Shaheen, MSN, WHNP: Beverly Shaheen graduated from Georgetown University in Washington, DC with a bachelor's degree in nursing, and received her master's degree from the University of Rochester. Her Nurse Practitioner education focused on women's health care as an obstetrical/ gynecologic clinician. She is a certified specialist in injectable contraceptive counseling and a certified Grief Counselor.
